

The Ultimate Instrument For The Hands On Professional

Cox 8 Table Enhancements

- Integral disc brake system on caudal section.
- Single-handed adjustment mechanism for ankle cushions.
- Tiller bar redesigned for improved tactile performance.
- Larger function control buttons on tiller bar.
- Repackaged wire routings.
- Steel weldments replaced with one piece aluminum machined components.
- Handles and knobs discrete to each functional section.
- Added hold down bar for face tissue.
- Free-floating long y-axis actuator.
- Improved headpiece balance.
- Friction-less operation of caudal section.
- Expanded offering of cushion cover colors.

Standard Features On Every Cox Table

- Silent powered actuation of vertical column.
- Silent powered tension adjustment of caudal section.
- Silent powered caudal long y-axis distraction with manual and fully automatic modes including accessory foot actuation strips.
- Tiller bars with oversized handball.
- Padded ankle straps.
- Full range of motion caudal section for lateral flexion, flexion tension, long y-axis distraction and circumduction.
- Cervical headpiece with full range of motion.
- 3 inch memory foam body support cushions.
- Precision machined, heavy duty construction.
- Approximate weight = 500 pounds.
- Designed and manufactured in the USA.
- One year warranty.

1500 South Beechtree Street
Grand Haven, MI 49417
(616) 935-1040