

Slipped Capital Femoral Epiphysis Lead to Hip Degeneration and Replacement

This patient is a 38 year old female who had slipped capital femoral epiphysis surgical pinning in the early teenage years of life. Note the degeneration of the hip joint that has led to need for surgical replacement of the hip. I did this case within the last month.

Respectfully submitted,
James M. Cox, D.C., D.A.C.B.R.